METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH (WOMAN'S CLUB OF TOWSON) -
1909 - 30 Alleghany Avenue, at SW corner with Bosley Avenue. Stone church with square corner tower and open belfry; gable roofing, Gothic windows, generally Queen Anne style. Originally the Second Methodist Church or Methodist Protestant Church, this congregation founded in 1861 rejoined the Towson Methodist Church in 1954 and the building was then acquired by the Woman's Club of Towson.
